Our Greeneville Letter.

GREENEVILLE, TENN. Oct. 31. MR. EDITOS: In the Knoxville Daily Tribune of Sunday October 31st, appears a communication signed by nineteen citizens of Greeneville and Greene county, ' in which, referring to my statements in a former communication to you that a rebel flag was borne by one of a procession of youths, and another by a woman, (both the youth and the woman being the wearers of Taylor badges,) at the meeting here on the 28th inst., they

"We the undersigned, citizens of Greeneville and Greene county were close observers of all the tranactions of the day, and without heeitation we hereby pronounce the statement absolutely talse, and the author of it a slanderer and a wilful and malicious liar. This reminds me of the Irishman who being confronted by two witnesses who swore that they saw him commit the alledged theft, said to the presiding judge: "An't plaze yer honor I'll fetch twenty witnesses who will swear that they didn't ses me stale the baste" But if I remember rightly the jury found Paddy guilty, and his honor sent need him to prison.

Now it is quite probable that these nineteen "citizens of Greeneville and Greene county" failed to see the emblems of rebeltion displayed on this occasion. To begin with "none are so blind as those who will not see " Next, the flag alledged to have been displayed by the youth was 'squealed," as soon as seen by some more persons, and was pursued through the crowd by an older person who called out; "give me that flag," then the youth gave it up as requested, and that the elder quickly rolled its folds up, and it waved no more on that occasion. Your corres pondent did not see the device on this flag flag' ventured near him, he turned and A Purely Vegetable Medicine. saw the youth deliver a flag to the older person whom he heard asked for it, and saw it so quickly rolled up as to prevent an inspection. Why there should have been so great haste to furl that particular flag it would would be difficult to say, if its folds were emblazoned with the glories of the stars and stripes. All the other flags, and they were numerous, on the ground, continued to float. Your correspondent has heard a statement from a democratic source that some | MENTAL DEPRESSION, ignorant person had made a flag intended for a United States flag but through his stupidity had made something that looked like a rebel flag and that such is the real foundation of the story told by your correspondent. Inasmuch as dozens of United States flags have been for weeks floating in the breeze in out strets, it must indeed have taxed the stupidity of an East Tennessee democrat, when to reduce the old thirteen stripes and the starry union of our old flag to the bastard rag of the "stars and ba s." of the "stars and ba s."

As to the flag alledged to have been displayed by a woman, nothing can be affirmed of his own knowledge by your correspondent except that it was freely spoken of in the au lience, and that he has no doubt that the past was as state of. Your correspondent did not examine every article of ladies apparel on this occasion and he would be a bold man who should assert what particular article of personal adornment distinguished, or did not dis tinguish the women, the Taylor badges were large and conspicious; and if, as I fully believe from statements freely made in the crowd there was a display of a rebel flag by some more ardent and less prudent female parti n of Bob Taylor, doubtless the discovery thereof led to its early concealment among the folds of feminine drapery, lest scandel might come of it.

That the affidavits of five times nineteen citizens of Greeneville and Greene county" all throughly respectable and veracious men, could be procured to snbstantiate the fact of the display of the rebel flag or flags, at the meeting referred to, and by the partisans of Bob Taylor, I have not the slightest doubt, but the game would not be worth the candle." These gentleman doubtless think that I am crushed by their joint and several declarations that I am 'a slanderer, and a wilful and malicious liar." But I know that this kind of talk is a comfort to them on the eve of defeat, and it doesn t change oue bair back or white on me. Indeed I may say that since it doesn thurt me, and sooths their feelings I am rather glad they used this high-toned language. They are quite welcome to salve over the the scars the canvass has made with this kind of plaster if they wish. Republicans and Union men got used to this sort of thing long since, and it only amuses us.

But why de these "citizens of Greene ville and Greene county" permit their gorges to rise so high at the idea that the rebel flag was displayed on this occasion? Why should men who by their ballots are working for the principles of Jeff Davis, Lee and Stonewall Jackson, be ashamed of assembling under the folds of the banner under which Lee and Jackson fought? These nineteen 'citizens of Greeneville and Greene county are endeavoring to place the government of the United States in the hands of a party dominated by men who were rebels, and who hope and expect to gain by ballots what they failed to get by ballots. Why are they so touchy at the mention of the flag under which the trusted leaders of the democracy of to-eay earned that there can be no doubt but that I am entirely cured, as I write this some seeks after its use, and am strong and look again the very picture of health. I write this perfectly voluntarily, and it
